model of a business. Long Range Planning, vol 43 2010 173. changing nature of user needs, and likely competitor responses. It outlines the business logic required to earn a profit (if one is available to be earned) and, once adopted, defines the way the enterprise "goes to market". But it is not quite the same as a strategy: the distinction and the relationship between the two will be discussed later. Despite lineage going back to when societies began engaging in barter exchange ...
