Project Prevention supports drug treatment and believes all addicts should have the opportunity to seek and find it. Since we all know there is a lack of drug treatment available to addicts at times I think we can all agree that being on birth control unless/until they have the opportunity to get clean is a positive step for all addicts/alcoholics.

Self-compassion is a process of self kindness and accepting suffering as a quality of being human. It has positive effects on subjective happiness, optimism, wisdom, curiosity, agreeableness, and extroversion. Kristin Neff and Christopher Germer have identified that there are three levels of activities that thwart self-compassion and they are self-criticism, self-isolation and self-absorption, they equate this to fight, flight and freeze responses.
