The Competitive Advantage of EffEctive Talent Management, 2013, PMI

The management literatureâ€™s study of the determinants of competitive advantage is paying increasing attention to factors related to human resources. Proponents of the resource-based view (RBV) of the firm have argued that, while tangible assets are typically imitable and thus unlikely to be a source of sustainable competitive advantage [1], â€ˆhuman assets are often hard to imitate due to scarcity, specialization, and tacit knowledgeâ€™ [2], and thus offer more promising ground to ...
